on the Fourth of July and resolved "2. That the Democracy of Weizel county are uncomproh laingly opposed to negro suffrage."

THE Democratic Convention yesterday ominated for President of the United country there is any one in all respects equal to it. Mr. Seymour and his friends have shown themselves master of what is well, the military books call grand strategy. Mr. Seymour played the role of Cæsar very finely. Mr. Pendleton was not really at any time a very formidable antagonist. He might have been in a Western city; but he was shorn of half Western city; but he was shorn of hair principle.

The platform also declares that the Convention. Seymour gained his first war has abolished the right of slavery rictory when it was called to meet at declared that this was a perversion of New York. With all Mr. Chase's brains," (of which Mr. Le Blond stood in such wholesome dread,) with all his consummate skill, tact and penetration, he was out-generalled, and he is to-day the deadest cock in the pit we know any ble petition to be taken on trial. in such wholesome dread,) with all his One copy extra to getter-up of club of ten. thing about. Somebody said of him when he was an Ohio politician, that he would do meaner things to get into office than any man in America. The history of this contest for a Presidential nomination verifies the remark. From the impeachment trial down to the last letter, wherein it is reported he professed his willingness to stand on the New York platform, he public debt as fast as possible by taxaliance was a supersided.

But Democratic resistance keeps out the remainder. It declares for amnesty for all past political offenses, They are already amnestied by the limitation of the franchise by the States. That is what the Republicans resolved.

It declares for the payment of the public debt as fast as possible by taxaliance. So do we. do meaner things to get into office than 1 25 verifies the remark. From the impeach, to stand on the New York platform, he got down lower and ate dirt more greedily than any man of his intellectual stature ever did before. Yet it availed him nothing.

The nomination of Seymour is a grand triumph for the "bloated bondholders" of the East. Mr. Seymour's hostility to Pendleton's greenback humbug is of the most pronounced kind. The speech which he delivered at Albany two or three weeks since was a powerful exposure of the rottenness of that theory. It may seem a little remarkable that after making a greenback platform the Convention should nominate so strong an anti-greenback man to stand upon it; but let us romember all things are possible with Democracy. That party is not hedged in by any necessity of being consistent, and it does not try to be. It aims solely at expediency. Seymour is the real platform. Had the Convention been sincere in the adoution of the greenback did not dare to declare squint interest of the sequence of "all political linstrumentalities" designed to secure negro supremacy. It did not dare to declare squint interest of declare squint interest of the sequence of "all political linstrumentalities" designed to secure negro supremacy. In our opinion they cannot. The greenback theory of which we have heard so much is as effectually slaughtered as Mr. Pendleton, its author. How can the party fight for greenbacks when the theory is to be no more recognized if the party wins than if they don't? It seems to us, therefore, that the nomi nation of Seymour removes this whole question of the currency and the bonds from the coming canvass. The Convenfrom the coming canvass. The Convention abandoned its own platform on this question, when it refused to nominate a man who represents it.

Mr. Seymour and the Republicans on this question stand on the same ground. They believe alike that all this talk about printing a thousand or two millions of paper to redeem the bonds is the veriest clap-trap and demagoguery; that it is not sign; and we think those acquainted a practical question, the bonds not beexception.) they will prove themselves for fifteen to twenty years; and that the e true policy is to so improve the credit of the Government meanwhile, that by the time the bonds must be paid, or as much sooner as possible, "lawful money" will be as good as gold. Mr. Seymour himself in his Albany speech effectually let the gas out of the Democratic balloon about the "one coverage for all "when earnest and capable workers. Taxation and Representation.

The Democracy of Weizel county met in the Fourth of July and resolved "2. That the Democracy of Weizel county is uncompron laingly opposed to negro infrage." "8. That the principle of taxation without propose to fight it out if it takes all sumpresentation is unconstitutional and unlate and merits the indignation of every were of good government."

The country advocate and Seymout, determine, on consultation mour, like the parties they head, are as far apart as the poles. On this line we propose to fight it out if it takes all sumpresentation is unconstitutional and unlated in the following as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest. The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the agree, after the price of a free government in the South has been paid, suffrage established and the carpotrepresentation is unconstitutional and un-just and merits the indignation of every lover of good government."

The Democratic Platform nominated for President of the United States, Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York. The contest for the nomination has been a remarkable one. We doubt whether in the political annals of the disband our armies, and try what vir tue there was in submission. This re cognizes it as a complete success. This is well. Their opponents have now recognized that the Republicar party has accomplished that which four years ago they pronounced impossible, namely, the preservation of the nation. THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. Frank Statement of it by the Nomnee for Vice President.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1868.

Colonel James O. Brodhead:

DEAR COLONEL:—In reply to your inquiries, I beg leave to say that I leave you to determine on consultation ontrolled by carpet-baggers and their solutioned by carpet sagers and then allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into a political club—by which an army is maintained to protect these vagabonds in their outrages upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenues and resources of the Government and destroy is credit—Make the difference between roll and greenback. We want restore gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into dust the usurpations of Congress, known as the reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the convention upon this issue, but it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignify, honor or value to the struggle.

Your friend, Frank P. Blair.
